

FOR RELEASE, November 2022

June 3, 2023 is the next election for Cherokee Nation. Are you registered to vote for the Cherokee Nation Election?

Persons who are Cherokee Nation citizens, and at least 18 years old or will be 18 on June 3, 2023 may apply to become a registered voter by the deadline of March 31st 2023.

Persons who have never been registered to vote or are not currently registered in the District of their residence and those who are registered but who need to change their registration information may apply by filling out and submitting a Cherokee Nation Voter Registration Application form on or before March 31, 2023. Voters with a new 911 address will need to complete a Voter Registration Application form updating their new address information on or before the voter registration deadline.

The Election Commission is reaching out to the Citizens of the Cherokee Nation who want to vote in the upcoming General Election on June 3, 2023, and the General Run-off if one is necessary on July 8, 2023.

Now is the time to check and make sure you are registered to vote. Citizens are encouraged to check with the Election Commission office and to verify the information is correct.

Voter registration closes for the General Election on the last business day of March 2023. The date is the 31st of March, midnight Central Time Zone. Voter registration forms can be requested or submitted in-person, by US Mail, E-mail, and fax. The Voter registration forms are available in the Election Commission Office and on our website. The contact information for requesting, receiving, and submitting the Voter Registration form is listed here for your convenience:

Cherokee Nation Election Commission:

P.O. Box 1188, Tahlequah, OK 74465-1188

Phone: 918-458-5899, Toll Free: 1-800-353-2895

Fax: 918-458-6101

Website: <https://election.cherokee.org>

E-mail: election-commission@cherokee.org

The Election Commission responds in writing to every person who submits an application for voter registration. The response is either a Voter Notification Card listing the new voter's District number, or a letter that explains the reason or reasons the application for voter registration was not approved. Any person who has submitted a voter registration application and who has not received a response within 30 days should contact the Election Commission office.